Hewn Engineered Flooring

Hewn by Lux Line Co. takes engineered wood flooring beyond the ordinary, crafting it with layers that are designed for strength, balance, and style. At its core, each plank is built from a stable base of high-density layers that resist shifting or warping, topped with a genuine wood veneer that brings out the natural beauty of oak, walnut, and other timeless species. The result is a surface that feels authentic underfoot yet performs with modern durability.

The Hewn collection offers versatility with chevron, herringbone, and straight plank formats, making it a refined choice for architects, designers, and homeowners seeking elegant yet resilient wood flooring solutions.
